There is a cellar door and gift shop on site. Refreshments are also available from the café.

Limited to 40 people.

Day 12 FRIDAY 5 OCTOBER 2018 - THE PAECH'S NOSTALGIC FARM Departs 9.00am

A relaxing day on a farm full of nostalgia starts by departing from Motorfest Headquarters at 9.00am and driving mostly on minor roads. We head up to Mt Barker in the Adelaide Hills via "The Old Princes Highway" which was once the main thoroughfare prior to the South Eastern Freeway. Passing through picturesque Stirling and Aldgate and on through historical Hahndorf, still on the "old road" we go through Mt Barker into Paech's Farm at Wistow.

On arrival we will enjoy a Devonshire tea, followed by a talk on the farm's history. The farm is still in the Paech family after 4 generations and hence has a large amount of historical items.

Along with tools, working exhibits, local farmers items, tractors and implements for the boys, there is the home, some of it still original. Inside there is the original kitchen utensils, 1900's hand made gowns, jewellery and much more, including the picturesque garden. There is free time to look around all the displays before a barbecue and salad lunch.

Limited to 50 people.

MOTORFEST HEADQUARTERS:- All events commence at Motorfest Headquarters which is part of the Glandore Community Centre complex, located corner of Clark Avenue and Naldera Street, Glandore. There is plenty of paved off-street parking from Clark Ave and easy access to facilities with tea and coffee on arrival. Thank you for being part of Federation Motorfest 2018.
