Reports

Log Books

There have been quite a few outstanding annual log book return sheets since June 2018. A list of these clubs were read out. No log books will be issued out to these clubs until sorted out.

Motorfest

We have had a second meeting and starting to get details in. We are looking at sending out entry forms etc in July.

Website:

Alan is an apology but still send in any events to go on the website.

General Business

Q: Does a member have to be an active one or just a financial one to have Historic Registration?

Answer: Only a financial one but a club may have its own rules on this.

Clubs can make rules re club financial/membership issues but not on Club Registration.

Steel City Drag Club Inc – application for membership. Their Constitution meets Federation criteria.

Minutes will be by email in future to Clubs and delegates.

Arthur Clisby day is now Sunday 25th September. The shop at Wirrina has been spoken to about the long wait for food.

The delegate from Mercedes Benz Club thanked the Federation for the grant for their event.

The Federation is meeting with the DIT on April 6th.

It was suggested that the Bus Preservation Association give a submission to Hugh before the DIT meeting.

Morvan spoke about conversations with Peter Malinauskas' office re the Federation being left out of his announcements re Historic Registration etc.

Question re carrying a load was asked. You can carry a load providing it is not for hire and reward and is for a club event.

A bus converted to a Motorhome is now classified as a Motorhome.

Meeting Closed 2.40 pm
